The Scottish Episcopal Church is a self-governing province of the world-wide Anglican Communion. This is a family of over 70 million Christians in more than 160 countries. Our nearest relations are the Church of England, the Church in Wales and the Church of Ireland. Through the Porvoo agreement we are also in full communion with many other branches of the Church.

St Columba's in Largs, is one of over 60 Episcopal congregations that work and worship within the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway. We are part of Ayrshire Region and our neighbours include congregations in Ardrossan, Dalry, Irvine, Troon, Kilmarnock, Prestwick, Ayr and Maybole.

The area covered by St Columba's includes Largs, Skelmorlie, Fairlie and West Kilbride and ecumenically we play a very active part in Largs Churches Together.

Dear Friends,

As I write this we are approaching the end of the season of Lent, the time of preparation for the celebration of our Lord's mighty resurrection at Easter. It is the most holy of seasons and so the Church offers all the faithful the opportunity to enter into the pascal mystery by offering acts of devotion that are peculiar to this time of year.

For many of us, worshipping each Sunday is our experience of what it is to be part of the community of faith here at St Columba's. This is well and good in and of itself, but I would urge you to make full use of the ancient services of the Church during Holy Week and Easter in order to deepen your faith in the one who gave himself for us on the cross and who died our death that we might share in his risen life.

From Maundy Thursday until Easter Day you are invited to the Triduum - the three day long liturgy that has us accompany Christ from his Last Supper to the Cross and on to his resurrection.

On Maundy Thursday we celebrate the Liturgy of the Last Supper, including the washing of the feet, the stripping of the altar, and the watch at the temporary altar of repose. Here we pray as our Lord did in the garden of Gethsemane immediately before his passion.

On Good Friday we will share with other Christians in an act of witness as a cross is carried through the streets of Largs. In the afternoon we will continue to accompany Jesus in the way of the cross as we reflect together on the stations around our building. Following this there is a service that focuses on his crucifixion; a service that will end at 3.00pm, the hour he gave up his spirit.

On the late evening of Easter Eve the pascal fire will be lit and the new pascal candle lit and set up in a darkened church as we hold a vigil in the light of his promise to us of new life. This service concludes with the joyful first Eucharist of Easter.

Our tradition is very rich indeed and I hope you will not simply leap from Palm Sunday to Easter Day and miss the cross; but rather fully participate in all that is provided for the deepening of your Christian faith.

May you have a blessed Holy Week and Easter,
Gordon

Largs Monday Toddlers

We still continue to have a good following of mums and grandparents coming each week. We now have 11 volunteers from the church who come about once a month, but we have someone leaving us again so would really like someone else from the church to say they could help. We all enjoy seeing the babies grow to toddlers, it is hard work but enjoyable. Gordon has decided to attend each week after Easter which is very supportive and will help in building the church bonds with the parents. Fiona Ferguson visited with her little dog and was enjoyed by the children. We have 2 weeks off for Easter and start again on 20th April. Plans are to finish the summer term off with a teddy bears picnic, so clean up your teddies and come along!

Sailing and Shopping

A while ago Alex and I were on a two week cruise to the Azores and Portugal. As usual we went to the short interdenominational services held each Sunday on board. 'Eternal Father, strong to save' takes on quite a new meaning when rocking and rolling in the Bay of Biscay!

At one of the services we heard the following poem read and both found it very moving. Perhaps you will too.

Pat McMillan

Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago.

One day I saw a sign that read,
"HEAVEN'S GROCERY STORE"

As I got a little closer the door came open wide
And when I came to myself I was standing inside.

I saw a host of ANGELS.

They were standing everywhere.

One handed me a basket and said, "My Child shop with care".

Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store.
And all you couldn't carry, you could come back the next day for more.

First, I got some PATIENCE: LOVE was in the same row.

Further down was UNDERSTANDING:

You need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of WISDOM, a bag or two of FAITH.

I just couldn't miss the HOLY GHOST,

For it was all over the place.

I stopped to get some STRENGTH and COURAGE

To help me run this race.

By then my basket was getting full,

But I remembered I needed some GRACE.

I didn't forget SALVATION, for SALVATION was free,

So I tried to get enough of that to save both You and Me.

Then I started up to the counter to pay my grocery bill,

For I thought I had everything to do the MASTER'S Will.

As I went up the aisle, I saw PRAYER: and I just had to put that in,

For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run into Sin.

PEACE AND JOY were plenty they were last on the shelf.

SONG and PRAISE were hanging near, so I just helped myself.

Then I said to the angel, "Now, how much do I owe?"

He smiled and said, "Just take them everywhere you go."

Again, I smiled and said, "How much do I really owe?"

He smiled again and said,

"MY CHILD, JESUS PAID YOUR BILL

A LONG, LONG TIME AGO."

Miss Ellie's Lament

Here am I, sad and lost and alone waiting for my life to get back to normal - my silly Gilly has broken her hip and had to send me back to my old home. It's a good place to be, I am spoilt but my grown-up son is jealous and resentful, hissing his displeasure. I had to give him a good cuff about the ears before respect and peace prevailed.

Anyway Gill has returned home with me and although I don't like that simmer-thing that she clomps about with she knows where my food is kept and allows me back on her knees!

She has a stream of visitors who have an eye for a well-presented Selkirk Rex and can be easily persuaded to find my maximum purr points.

Also I see the smile as she looks at the many, many cards full of kind messages which she has received from all her friends.

Thank you very much for bringing the joy back into both our lives.

Miss Ellie (passed on from Gill Beresford)

Confirmation Classes

Someone has approached me with an interest in being Baptised and Confirmed. Confirmation Classes will begin in the next couple of weeks and will run for 6 sessions. Please let me know if you, too, would be interested in being Confirmed. Classes are also open to those who might wish to participate in a 'refresher course'.

Bishop Gregor will be with us for the service of Baptism and Confirmation at Pentecost, Sunday 24 May.

Congregational Away Day

It is hoped that a congregational away day might be possible one Saturday in August. Please sign-up on the sheet in the church porch if you would be interested in journeying together to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne.

Largs Churches Together Services for Holy Week and Easter

During Holy Week, from Monday, 30 March - Saturday 4 April, the congregations of Largs are invited to join together each evening at 7.30pm in St John's Church for a short act of worship. Local clergy will lead the service each evening. Our own congregation will be responsible for the service on Wednesday, 1 April.

The Good Friday Walk of Witness will leave from our church at 10.00am on Friday, 3 April and end at the War Memorial. All who participate in the Walk are invited to the Dunn Memorial Hall for tea and Hot Cross Buns following this joint witness.

Members of the Largs Congregations are invited to an open-air service at the War Memorial on Easter Day (5 April) at 8.00am.

On Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, we will have our own provision of worship here at St Columba's as follows:

Maundy Thursday: 7.30pm The Liturgy of the Last Supper including washing of the feet, Eucharist, stripping of the altar and the watch.

Good Friday: 10.00am L.C.T Walk of Witness
1.15pm Stations of the Cross
2.00pm Liturgy of the Last Hour

Holy Saturday: 9.00pm Easter Vigil and first Eucharist of Easter

I hope you will make every effort to fully participate in the services offered at this most holy season.

The Rector

Congregational Retreat

It may be possible for some members of our congregation to join with another (St Paul & St John the Evangelist, Monklands) for a few days retreat at the College in Millport. It would be helpful if I had an idea of just how many from St Columba's would be interested in participating this year. The Retreat would be from Thursday, 11 - Sunday, 14 June. The total cost is £189.50 (£61 per night full board plus £6.50 for Sunday lunch).

Spaces are limited, so please sign-up by Easter Day (5 April).

The Rector

From Moses to Adam and Back Again

In the Scottish Episcopal Church, we use the Revised Common Lectionary (shared with all the major denominations) to determine the readings that we use on a Sunday and at other times. This stops the clergy from picking their favourite texts to preach on and avoiding some of the more challenging passages. The readings follow a three year cycle and range widely over the books of the Bible.

Even though the Church hears the Word of God through the diverse circumstances of many individuals and groups, from time to time we hear very familiar passages. Such was the case on Mothering Sunday, when we heard the story of Moses in the bulrushes. Now as I have said from time to time in sermons, the trouble with very familiar passages is that it can be difficult to really hear, because as soon as we recognise the passage it is very tempting to simply replay what we are already familiar with, rather than listening carefully, as though for the first time.

In our Lenten study group we are using paintings, in conjunction with familiar texts, to gain new insights into some of the key events in the life of Christ, and those taking part have benefitted greatly from that experience. On Mothering Sunday, we had the opportunity to see the story of Moses in the bulrushes through new eyes; the eyes of five of our younger members, who jumped at the opportunity to enact the passage with the aid of a few props.

What Aubrey, Rebecca, Sophie, Lucy and Matthew did for us was to tell the story through their interpretation of the characters, and that was not necessarily how we might have seen them previously. Rebecca showed us a rather petulant and assertive daughter of Pharaoh, much more realistic than the rather saccharine character that I had picked up from Sunday School and illustrated Bibles. Matthew gave us a Pharaoh who was rather bored with what his daughter was getting up and that, of course, was ultimately his downfall. The care with which Lucy, in the role of Miriam (Moses older sister) placed Moses in his basket in the rushes, and Sophie as Jochebed (Moses mother) nursed him were lovely demonstrations of Mothering. All of this followed a clear and thoughtful reading of the passage from Exodus by Aubrey, who also acted as attendant to Pharaoh's daughter.

I would imagine that everyone present must have heard or seen something new in this very familiar passage, through the way that our younger members saw it. This perhaps demonstrates what Jesus meant in Matthew 21:15-16:

“But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the amazing things that he did, and heard the children crying out in the temple, ‘Hosanna to the Son of David’, they became angry and said to him, ‘Do you hear what these are saying?’ Jesus said to them, ‘Yes; have you never read, “Out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself”?’”

When Henri Nouwen gave up a glittering academic career and accepted an invitation to join the L'Arche Daybreak community in Richmond Hill, north of Toronto as its pastor in 1986, it was something that transformed his life. “Daybreak was his homecoming”. He lived in one of the homes and was asked to help Adam Arnett, a man with a severe disability, with his morning routine. Nouwen's book “Adam, God's Beloved” describes how Adam became his friend, his teacher and his guide. He also frequently took Adam, or one of the other severely disabled members of the Community, as co-presenter on his lecture tours. He did this because he said that in his one-to-one relationship with people who society often regards as simply the recipients of care, he had learnt so much, and he wanted those attending his lectures to appreciate the mutuality of learning, nurturing and mothering that he experienced daily at Daybreak in accompanying Adam.

Reflecting on our experience on Mothering Sunday and Henri Nouwen's experience at Daybreak, we would all do well to take to heart what Paul wrote to the Corinthians:

“Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.”
1 Cor 12:4-10

We can all of us learn from everyone else in our community of faith and all those that we encounter in our lives, no matter differences in age, experience, education, or other characteristics. God is able to show himself through anyone and everyone and in doing so does not need their permission. As Gerard Hughes wrote in his book “God in all Things”:

“God is very near, is at hand. ‘The Word became flesh and dwelt among us.’ But in spite of God's continuous efforts to make this known to us, we have nevertheless managed to make God remote, and we take remarkable care to keep God at a distance!"

We risk missing out on many riches if we fail to pay attention to God speaking to us through everyone we encounter including of course: Lucy, Rebecca, Sophie, Matthew, Aubrey and Adam.

Vestry Notes

The following matters were discussed and decisions made at the meeting of the Vestry on 9 March:

Church website– A Short Life Working Group had met to progress the redesign of the website with helpful input from Andrew, Imogen and Hannah Harvey.

North Ayrshire Food Bank- Vicky continues to take any donated food to the Largs outlet. Catriona Nardini had donated the contents of the Fairtrade hamper she had won in the raffle to the Food Bank which was much appreciated.

Altar Frontal- The contemporary design of the altar frontal painted by Jane McCance had been much admired and commented on over the Christmas period. The Secretary will write to Jane to thank her for the frontal and her time and talent.

Congregational Retreat- The Rector advised that the Cathedral in Millport was fully booked for June but there was a possibility of us doubling up with St Paul & St John the Evangelist, Monklands, Airdrie who had a booking that month led by his previous Rector's Warden. The Rector will pursue this opportunity.

Property- A new lock has been installed on the Rectory door and James has resolved a problem in the en-suite. Chris and James have cleaned all the gutters around the Church, hall and Rectory with only the garage remaining to be done. The Vestry recorded their appreciation of the work to maintain Church property that James and Chris have undertaken.

Chris has undertaken to (i) arrange a roofer to undertake some tiling which was out of reach of our ladders and (ii) arrange a joiner to (a) secure loose floorboards at the pulpit, (b) replace the rotten windowsill at the Office and (c) advise and quote on insulating the ceiling of the dunny to stop draughts coming up to the organ and choir area. Ray is obtaining advice regarding the hall floor which was in need of sanding and sealing with a water based sealant.

Budget- There is currently a budget surplus of £14,450.91 due primarily to savings on property costs and a generous bequest of £10,000. A saving of £1,552.22 has been made in gas and electricity charges from December 2014 to date due to revising heating timings and this will continue to be monitored;

Social/Fundraising- The next fundraising event is the Car Boot sale on 18th April. Compost located behind the garage is to be bagged and sold at the Car Boot and to the congregation.

Protection of Vulnerable Groups- It was noted that by end June all those working with vulnerable children or adults will be PVG registered.

MAP Review- Columba's Creatives was going well every Wednesday from 6 to 7 pm. The labyrinth was still subject to attracting funding and the holding of Film and Discussion meetings in the Hall was being pursued by Gib. These matters will continue to be developed and progressed through the year.

Bishop's Lent Appeal- This year's Appeal will be for the Scottish Episcopal Institute to help finance those going forward for ordination.

Pastoral Team- The Pastoral Team have now attended three of the five training events and they will be licensed by the Bishop on completion.

Votive Candles- A plate is to be placed on the flower box for members wishing to donate for votive candles.

Largs Monday Toddlers Group- Volunteers are required to assist on Monday mornings. The Rector has committed himself to attend every Monday so he can get to know the mothers and guardians who attend and this will mean that there is no longer a need for the key to the hall being passed between volunteers.

Hassocks- The hassocks currently have to be moved from pew to floor and vice versa for cleaning purposes, etc. The Rector, Chris, Eleanor and Elsie are to meet to look at the feasibility of adding hooks to the back of pews and a brass ring to each hassock so they can hang from the pew.

The late Revd Canon Joyce Pow- The Vestry expressed their sadness at the recent death of Joyce and placed on record how grateful they were for the contribution she had made to the life of our church and to the local community through the friendships she created. It was felt appropriate to have a memorial item for her in the Church in recognition of her service and the Vestry members will give some thought to this at the next Vestry meeting on 27 April.

Ray Young, Vestry Secretary

Bishop's Lent Appeal

Please remember to return your offering towards the Bishop's Lent Appeal. This year all diocese' of the Scottish Episcopal Church are contributing to the work of the Scottish Episcopal Institute in training men and women for ordination.

Your Lent Appeal offering should be returned on Easter Day (5 April).

Remember the Easter Egg hunt in the church gardens
following the 11.00am service on Easter Day!

Please check these rotas and note if you are included.

Please feel free to swap with others to ensure duties are covered for all services.
