Scottish Episcopal Church

Largo

April 2016

*'Christ being raised from the dead will never die again:
death no longer has power over him.'*

Romans 6:9

The Scottish Episcopal Church is a self-governing province of the world-wide Anglican Communion. This is a family of over 70 million Christians in more than 160 countries. Our nearest relations are the Church of England, the Church in Wales and the Church of Ireland. Through the Porvoo agreement we are also in full communion with many other branches of the Church.

St Columba's in Largs, is one of over 60 Episcopal congregations that work and worship within the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway. We are part of Ayrshire Region and our neighbours include congregations in Ardrossan, Dalry, Irvine, Troon, Kilmarnock, Prestwick, Ayr and Maybole.

The area covered by St Columba's includes Largs, Skelmorlie, Fairlie and West Kilbride and ecumenically we play a very active part in Largs Churches Together.

Dear Friends,

Easter was very early this year. It was almost as early as it can be. This year, more than most, it seemed out of step with the academic and civic calendars that try to keep the spring holidays to the first fortnight in April. But that's how it is when the Church Calendar continues to keep Easter as a lunar festival - one that has a potential variance of up to 35 days.

Over the centuries, and in recent days too, there have been various attempts to regularise the celebration of our most central feast. It has been suggested that, perhaps, it might be good to keep Easter each year on the Sunday following the second Saturday in April. Of course all the branches of the Church would have to agree to this if we were to end the different celebrations that continue to be kept. Who knows, within our lifetime we might see Easter fixed in the same way that Christmas is.

For some this is important, for others it is not. I suppose what is important is that we celebrate Easter at all. The resurrection of our Lord, and his conquering of death and hell, is the very foundation of our Christian faith. His victory is our victory over the grave. It is the assurance that there are no limits to God's love for us and nowhere too dark for the brilliant light of that love to shine and overcome.

Each Sunday throughout the year is, in a very real sense, a mini Easter. Each week we are called to participate in recalling his passion and celebrating the new life he came to share with us.

In the face of all the suffering and fear of our broken world, the Risen Christ proclaims the ultimate victory of life over death and of love over hate. In Christ God seeks to unite our everyday experience with himself, that we might live as people of joy and hope; for 'The Lord is Risen. He is Risen indeed. Alleluia!'

Yours in the faith,

Gordon

Lent Lunch ‘Thank You’

On behalf of the Christian Aid Committee I would like to thank everyone who volunteered to help at the Lent Lunches this year. We have had a very successful year and to date we have raised £2650. A huge ‘well done’ as we couldn't have done this without so much fantastic help.

Thank you all so much. The money raised will make such a difference.

Kind regards
Liz Hamilton

CBRT Perth Conference

“We shape our buildings, thereafter they shape us”
Winston Churchill

I attended the Churches Buildings Renewal Trust conference at St John’s Kirk in Perth on 4 March with the aim of finding out how other churches were making use of either redundant churches and halls or were seeking ways to bring new life to old buildings. About 40 people attended from all over Scotland and we listened to a number of case studies where churches or halls had been successfully renovated to make them fit for purpose today. In one case, the Methodist and Baptist churches had swapped premises in Edinburgh to accommodate growing numbers and a desire to offer further facilities for corporate entertainment or conferences. But the question was asked “Are we a business or church?”, which didn’t sit easily with the presenters; but our buildings are tools to help us in our mission.

We also heard from other churches that were developing their contribution to the communities they serve and we were all encouraged to have a business plan to ensure we could make ends meet, but we all shared one thing in common in that our income is less than our expenditure.

Whilst not directly relevant to our own situation here in St Columba’s, it was good to hear from others who are making changes to their churches and halls, and I’m grateful to the Vestry for covering my attendance fee.

Chris Evans

SMALLS FOR ALL

I have recently heard of this charity run out of Livingston which sends lightly used bras and new underpants to several African countries.

Wearing underwear is needed for their security, health and well being. Not only is it a health and hygiene problem for many poor African communities, as women often only own one pair of tattered pants or have none at all, but underwear is also seen as a status symbol and offers a degree of security.

Women who can afford underwear tend to be seen as having someone who cares for them – a husband, brother or father. They are not on their own so they are not seen as vulnerable. Girls without pants don't attend school several days each month and women who have had gynaecological operations are allowed home from hospital much sooner if they have pants.

Once sorted in Livingston, they get sent to places like Northern Uganda, where there is a camp for Sudanese refugees, Freedom from Fistula Foundation and Kenya Children's Home. Those worn bras that aren't good enough, are recycled and the money from this goes towards the transportation.

I would like our church to be a collection point for these. I will leave a collection box at the back of the church. I'm hoping that I can get quite a bit of support from Largs residents.

What do they need?

They must be new underpants and size wise for children, boys and girls, aged 3-15 or ladies size 8-16.

We also accept new or 'gently worn' bras which can be any size.

Once I have enough I will get it to Livingston somehow. If you can suggest ways to spread the news about this project, please speak to me.

Knitters/crochet appeal

The Mothers Union in this diocese have many friends who enjoy knitting/ crocheting. This is where our knitting goes below. I hope a few of you would like to help knit for these deserving causes. I have the odd pattern, if you are interested. We have spoken to mums who have lost their baby and were so appreciative that someone has thought to make a beautiful burial gown. The nurses on the maternity ward say that many of the young mums have so little for their new born, that they will take as much as we can provide.

Princess Royal Glasgow

Neonatal - Small hats, small baby jackets, burial gowns and Angel pockets

Maternity and Malawi - Ordinary size hats, cardigans, incubator blankets, teddies

Leeds children hospital - Bonding squares

Bonding squares

Double knitting, 7inch X 7 inch. Not lacy knitting. Need two the same colour and stitch style. Gentle hand wash before going into a plastic bag. Don't use mohair type of wool.

What are bonding squares?

One knitted square of approximately seven inches square is placed with baby and another is worn against mum's skin, then the squares are swapped round every 12 hours or every time mum visits. Little Billy Hayward was born 12 weeks early and weighed just 1lb 10oz! Two months on he is 4lb 3oz and is still on the St James's Neonatal Unit but is doing really well.

His mum Jane uses the bonding squares and finds they are a huge help in various different ways. First of all, they help with bonding because Billy can smell her scent even when she isn't there or wasn't able to get him out of his incubator, and then when she goes home she can still smell his scent on the square, which is a big comfort as she of course misses him. Not only this, but she told us it has really helped with expressing breast milk. Keeping the scent of the baby close by triggers the hormones needed to produce and express the milk, which is very important as breastfeeding can be difficult for mothers with premature babies.

Heart Start Training

A local First Responder, David MacDonald, will come and offer a Heart Start training here at St Columba's. The event will take place in the church hall at 7.00pm on Friday, 22 April.

I would urge all sides people and any others from the congregation to attend this training in order that we might offer the highest possible care to anyone in need of assistance in future.

An idea of the numbers involved in necessary, so do please print your name on the list provided in the church porch and right amount of equipment will be made available at the training.

A similar training took place a few years ago and participants were certificated then, but the passing of time now means that these certificates are now out of date and must be renewed.

I hope many of us will sign-up and attend this vital training.

Flagpole

It has been suggested that we could, perhaps, raise the profile of our church by installing a flagpole in the grounds. This might be placed at the corner of Greenock Road and Aubery Crescent and could potentially fly flags to mark times of year or special occasions.

Members of the Vestry are investigating the planning implications but would be interested in hearing your views on the subject.

Pass on your comments to the Rector or any member of the Vestry.

The Rector

There will be a Car Boot Sale from 9.00am - 1.00pm
here at St Columba's on Saturday, 9 April.

Volunteers and produce, items, etc are sought for the Tea Room and various church stalls - Home-Baking, Jewellery, Bric-A-Brac and Gate.

Donations can be left at the back of church
(no electrical items or clothing please).
New volunteers can contact the Rector.

Vestry Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Vestry at 7.00pm on Tuesday, 26 April.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Peter and Elspeth
Robertson who celebrated their 65th
Wedding Anniversary on 31st March.

Regional Council Report

The Rector, Lay Representative (Chris Evans) and Regional Representative (William Clark-Ferguson) attended a meeting of Ayrshire Regional Council at St Andrew's Church, Ardrossan, on Tuesday 8 March.

In addition to the usual pieces of business, we heard a presentation from the Revd Liz Crumlish. She is a Church of Scotland minister who, until recently, served at a parish in Ayr. She spoke in her capacity as the one heading up a new mission initiative within the Church of Scotland. The initiative is called the 'Path of Renewal' and its aim is to bring the church back to its basic calling - that of making disciples. It seeks to do this by having congregations reassess who they are in their context and develop ways of being church in a relevant way to the society in which they are set.

The Church of Scotland may eventually offer this to all their parishes but, for the moment, this two-year programme is being taken up by around 23 congregations throughout the country as a pilot scheme. The congregations cover a wide spread of localities, from urban to rural and are spread throughout the United Kingdom, but mostly in Scotland.

The two year programme runs as follows:

Year One: Teaching on missional theology and leadership; principals for managing change - moving from maintenance to mission; and training and mentoring missional leaders.

Year Two: Teaching on community development - using a partnership approach; spiritual formation, creating a discipleship process; and creating effective local structures.

This is not about changing everything at once. The initiatives come through a group assigned with that task that exists independent of the usual structures of the congregation.

It was interesting to hear of these developments in another Scottish denomination. It seemed to carry some similarities to our own Mission Action Planning process - though this is ongoing for us and, in time, should become part of the DNA of our life and witness.

Diocesan Synod Report

The Rector and Lay Representative attended the annual meeting of Diocesan Synod on Saturday, 5 March, at Holy Trinity & St Barnabas, Paisley.

During the opening Eucharist, Bishop Gregor, in his charge to Synod, spoke at length on the importance of identity.

The Provost of the Cathedral, the Very Revd Kelvin Holdsworth, led a session on the proposed revision of the Diocesan Constitution. This was done by members of synod moving into groups that roughly mirrored the seven regions that currently exist. During the discussion most fed back that, though regional boundaries may change here and there, they would prefer to maintain the present arrangements whereby representatives to Diocesan Council were elected from their Region rather than from Diocesan Synod.

There was an interesting presentation on the Bishop's Lent Appeal 'The Bethlehem Arab Society for Rehabilitation'. It is hoped that the money raised by the diocese this year will buy urgently needed equipment for those who use this important facility.

The Rector

Sea Sunday

We will observe Sea Sunday this year on Sunday, 10 April. The Revd Tim Tunley will preach that day during the service of Choral Matins and be free to answer any questions on the work of the Mission to Seafarers over tea in the hall following the 11.00am service.

Please come prepared to contribute to the retiral collection for the Mission to Seafarers.

Water Aid Coffee Morning

Saturday 2 April 2016 10 am till 12 noon

Dunn Memorial Hall, St John's Church, Largs – entrance £1.50

WaterAid is the wonderful charity which provides clean water and safe sanitation for some of the poorest people on earth. Over 2000 million people have no access to these facilities which we take for granted, and 4000 children die from drinking dirty water every day.

Please come to the coffee morning and bring your friends. There will be a sale of home-baking (please bring some if you are able) and a Traidcraft stall.

Richard and Celia Walker will also be signing and selling copies of the three books of their adventures including their latest book, Walkers on Wheels, which tells of recent visits they have made to Chile and Bolivia, Malawi and Zimbabwe. These books are not profit-making and are sold for WaterAid. So far over £10,100 has been sent to WaterAid from their books.

THE BOOK GROUP

Have you tried the Church Book Group yet? It's not too late.

We are currently reading 'The Hundred Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared' by Jonas Jonasson.

The Book Group next meet in the Rectory at 7.00pm on Wednesday, 13 April.

Vestry Notes

The Vestry met in the Rectory at 7.00pm on Tuesday, 1 March. At this meeting the following items were discussed:

HeartStart- Vicky undertook to contact David MacDonald to arrange HeartStart refresher training by end May. David also to be ask about providing a defibrillator for the Church.

Data Protection- The Vestry noted that the action required to conform to the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998 in order to safeguard personal information had been taken and that the Secretary had written an article in the December Magazine on the requirements, including advising him of any changes to their circumstances.

Stewardship Campaign: Chris questioned whether a stewardship campaign this year was the best way forward as it may be more appropriate to hold an annual increased giving campaign. He undertook to bring forward proposals to the next Vestry.

Congregational Awayday to Roslyn Chapel: Vicky advised that the cost of a three course meal at the Old Roslyn Hotel was £20 and a two course alternative could be arranged. The Rector advised that he would put up a notice in the Church porch for those interested to sign up so that numbers for catering and transport could be identified.

Training Intercessors- Rector undertook to arrange between Easter and Summer.

Acolytes- Sophie and Aubrey have now been trained and undertook the role of Acolytes at the last Eucharist Together.

Church Attendance Survey- Letter received from Scottish Church Census advising that a church census will be undertaken among all the churches in Scotland on Sunday 8 May 2016.

Quinquennial Report- Due to be carried out on 22 March. ARPL Associates to carry out assessment at a cost of £800 plus VAT (total: £960).

Treasurer- Chris had previously circulated a report on Receipts and Payments against the Budget for the half-year to 25 February. The report showed a surplus of £25,557 due to the generous bequest from Revd Canon

Joyce Pow's Estate but there was a worrying shortfall in income from Standing Orders and Free Will Offering envelopes.

Social/Fundraising- The Rector reported that the 'Burns Light Night' had been very successful and that William was planning another event to mark the 140th anniversary of the laying of the Church foundation stone and 50th anniversary of the opening of the Church Hall.

Congregational Matters-The Secretary advised that he will continue to update the Congregational Roll with any amendments advised to him by members of the congregation. Vicky to ascertain whether a display board at her work can be made available to better display the congregation's photographs. The Rector undertook to arrange photos of new members not currently displayed.

Mission Action Plan- The Rector reported that the Book Group and Meditation Group were progressing well with some new faces. He advised that he had been contacted by Bishop Gregor and the Dean regarding the proposed labyrinth and this would be fully funded subject to quotes from a landscape gardener and two others which he would arrange with a view to work starting at the end of August. The prayer tree is being used and prayers from the tree are included in Intercessions on the first Sunday each month.

Flag Pole- Linda suggested that a flag pole be sited in the front garden area to raise the profile of the Church and as an act of outreach. Flags could be flown to mark Saints' days and members of the congregation with attachments to other countries may wish to donate a flag of that country. Following discussion, it was agreed that Linda write an article for the magazine to seek the views of the congregation. Meantime Ray would ascertain whether planning permission would be required.
